LIST OF NEW BOOKS.

NORDHOFF'S CALIFORNIA. A Manual for Health, Pleasure, and Business. A Book for Travellers and Settlers. By Charles Nordhoff. Seventh Thousand just ready. Illustrated. 8vo. Paper, $2.50. Cloth, $3.00.

This book, as few books, one of the best tests for general interest. Open it where you will, and you find yourself at once attracted by the subject and the style. Mr. Nordhoff has known how to use his eyes and his pen, and the result is a book that is a great deal more than a compact, readable, and workmanlike form, and to enter at the same time in the pleasantest books of the season, so that Mr. Nordhoff's "California" is a real book.

THE MULGREATH MALLEMARCH. A Study of French Poetry. George Eliot, Author of "Adam Bede," "The Mill on the Floss," "Romola," etc., 12mo. Cloth, $3.50.

"Mallemarch, A Study of French Life," we have a most striking and delightful study of the life of the people, and the manners of the great French novelists.

The persons of the story are as true typical and individual. They are representative of English provincial life, and the author's knowledge of French literature is reflected in her appreciation, on account of their peculiarities and oddities. Without any apparent effort on the part of the author, she makes us live in our imagination in the scenes, incidents, and characters of the story, and we are deeply interested in the book.

It is our deliberate judgment that it deserves a place among the best new fiction—British Globe.
